Harding Backs

mission for the holding of the recent

the first speaker.

Noted Men to Speak

Three Brides Of Spring Tell Nuptial Plans

Wedding Arrangements of Miss Katherine W. Smith, Miss Elizabeth Lanier and Miss Junior Squiers Made

Miss Morton Betrothed

Bryn Mawr Club Member To Be Married to Samuel G. Frantz, of Princeton '19

Dates and plans for the spring wed-dings of interest to society are being of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gilbert Smith, become the bride of Henry Schauffier, of New York, in Christ Episcopal Church, Greenwich, on the afternoon

Miss Elizabeth Lanier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Lanier and a granddaughter of the late Sidney anier, will be married to Robert H. Bolling, of this city, May 14. Mr. Bolling is a brother of the late Colonel Raynal C. Bolling.

On June 4 Miss Junior Squiers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Squiers, of Bedford, N. Y., will become the bride of Ashley Pomeroy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore L. Pomeroy, of Greenwich, at the country home of her parents at Bedford.

Dr. Thomas S. K. Morton, of Philadelphia, has announced the engageent of his daughter, Miss Sarah Wistar Morton, of the Bryn Mawr Club, 279 Lexington Avenue, New York, to Samuel Gibson Frantz, son of Mrs. Frantz, of Princeton, N. J. Mr. Frantz Frantz, of Princeton, N. J. Mr. Frantz is a graduate of Princeton, '19. He is chief engineer of the Crossett Lumber Company, with Headquarters at Crossett. Ark. In 1917 he was with the American ambulance service, and later became a second lieutenant in the United States army balloon corps.

Mrs. Alfred W. Gwynne, of Paris who has been in this country for several months, staying most of the time Allen, at Hempstead, L. I., has returned to the city from Washington, where she was a guest of her father, Frank-lin Steel. Mrs. Gwynne was Miss Helen

Mrs. Richard T. Wilson will give a musicale Sunday afternoon at her apartment, 130 West Fifty-seventh Visitors at Palm Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bradley have prived in town from their country clace at Convent, N. J., and are at the lotel St. Regis for a few days.

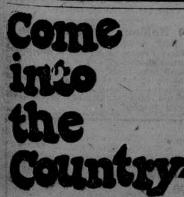

The Prince and Princess Rospigliosi, of 145 East Thirty-sixth Street, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter. The princess was Miss Laura Stallo.

The Sowers will give an enter-tainment in the ballroom of the Hotel Plaza, April 9, for the benefit of the Darrach Home for Crippled Children. It is to take the form of a "cinema dance," the first part of the evening being given over to motion pictures, after which there will be dancing.

The Yale University Dramatic Asso-iation will give Clare Kummer's "A biccessful Calamity" to-night at the lotel Plaza. Tickets may be obtained to the hotel or at the Yale Club. The day was given during Prom Week, in 'ebruary, and upon request of many raduates was produced again at the fale Club, February 25. As only mem-iers of the club were allowed to see his performance it was decided to give third presentation this evening.

The partnesses in was decided up were proving from the partness of the partnes

CUP THE BENT TWIG Harcourt Brace & Co., I W. 47th ST., N. Y.

where your Golf Club is.

Member of Gibbs Dinner Committee

Mrs. Charles H. Ditson

She is a member of the committee in charge of the dinner to be given to Sir Philip Gibbs, on Monday night at the Hotel Biltmore, by the Allied Loyalty League.

260 Madison Avenue, will return to the city April 1 from Jekyl Island. Mrs. Lyttleton Fox left town yester-ay with Mrs. Louis du Pont Irving or Aiken, S. C.

Mrs. James Lowell Putnam gave a inner last night at her home, 1067 lifth Avenue.

Honor St. Patrick's Day

Club Dinner-Dance Marks the Anniversary; School of Huge Rays Loses One Giant Member pocial Dispatch to The Tribune

PALM BEACH, Fla., March 17. St. evening clientèle. Among those entertaining were Mrs. Henry F. Lippitt, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Endicott Warren, Mrs. Charles W. Bingham, Mrs. George Schofield and Mrs. Irving Chase; Mrs. Addison Stilwell, entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Irving Chase; Mrs. Addison Stilwell, entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Basin that delights the city flow on the forzen mud last December in the forzen mud last December in the frozen mud last December in the frozen mud last December in the floward for luncheon at the club, Miss Maxine Elliott, Miss Katherine Mackey, B. F. Studge, Edward Crozer and Miss. Forbes-Robertson are among the expension of the composition of the forzen will as pfayers at the Everglades Club.

The manning the frozen mud last night that the brushing skirts of women visitors who bend over them too fovingly.

It was announced last night that the fire forzed will a fire the forzest and fifteenth show would be open all day Sunday will arrive on Sunday to occupy her vivilag. Mr. and Mrs. William Zione and that a large quantity of the fire of the fire of the fire of the fire of the forzen mud last December in the floward for luncheon at the club. Miss Maxine Elliott, Miss Katherine Mackey, B. F. Studge, Edward Crozer and Miss. Forbes-Robertson are among the tension skirts of women visitors who bend over them too fovingly.

It was announced last night that the fire of the

York collector were auctioned at the

Anderson Gallery yesterday afternoon McDermott Made Judge Advo-

York collector were auctioned at the Anderson Gallery yesterday afternoon for $4,365. The sale, which is composed of extra-illustrated volumes, finely bound standard sets and limited by Major General John F. O'Ryau of the promotion of Arthur V. McDermott, former operations officer of the 10th Infantry, to the rank of lieutenant colonel in photogravure, one of them hand colored, brought $250, the highest price. Gabriel Wells was the purchaser. A set of Balzac's "La Cemedie Humaine," illustrated with hand colored plates, sold to the same buyer for $142.50. The edition is one of forty inscribed copies. A literal translation of the Arabian Nights, in ten volues, Illustrated with photogravures on Japan paper, brought $92.50 if command of a provisional battalion reorganized from the survivors of the attack of the 106th Infantry as captain of the headquarters company and later on the regimental state commander. American Legion: In the attack on the Hindenburg line September 29, 1918, he volunteered to the table of the attack of the 106th Infantry on translation of the Arabian Nights, in ten volues, Illustrated with photogravures on Japan paper, brought $92.50 if command of a provisional battalion reorganized from the survivors of the attack of the 106th Infantry on translation of the Arabian Nights, in ten volues, Illustrated with photogravures on Japan paper, brought $92.50 in action he was awarded the British Military Cross. He has also received the Military Cross. He has also received the British Military Cross. He has also received the British Military Cross. He has also received the Military Cross. He has also received the British Military Cross. He has also received the Briti

Wayside Blooms Rival Aristocrats At Flower Show

Shy Spring Buds, Remindful The other speakers, in their order, will be Martin W. Littleton, Hugh Frayne. Colonel William J. Donovan, United States Senator Frank B. Willis, General John J. Pershing, the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires, rector of St. Thomas's Church, and the Rev. Father Edward J. Higgins, of All Souls' Church, Brooklyn. of Country Fields and Byroads, Divide Honors With Queens of Floral World

It is not only the prize roses and one weighing more than 1,000 pounds was caught and hauled up for exhibition.

With Mr. Kilmer are Dr. F. C. Squires, Mrs. J. Sharp Niles and the Misses Jane Wells and Ruth Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Croser entertanied twenty-four at a dinner dance in the garden grill at the Poinciana last night. The party included Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Kauffman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Darlington, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. David R. Calhoun, Mr. and Mrs. David R. Calhoun, Mr. and Mrs. J. Randolph Robinson, in whose honor the party was given, Frazer Jelke, Charles Perrin, Caleb Bragg, Blaine Webb and William L. Jutte, and the Misses Mona and Florence Crozer.

Roy Carruthers, managing director of the Waldorf-Astoria, has left the Poinciana to visit E. L. Potter at the Clarenden Hotel, Seabreeze.

Book Treasures Auctioned

Collector's Copies of Extra Illustrated Works Bring High Prices

Collector's Copies of Extra Illustrated Works Bring High Prices

Book Treasures Auctioned

Mrs. J. Sharp Niles and the Misses Jane been raised from a seed found in a tomb of the Pharaohs. It had been dried in a way to retain its color. The silver cup for the most artistic masket or vase of flowers was won by the Garden Club of Greenwich, Conn., by the Garden Club of G

Books from the library of a New Wounded Veteran Promoted

Among those who have accepted in

Patriot Rally At the Garden which she is the president; Mrs. Reynolds Whitney, Charles D. Orth, president of the National Security League; John G. Agar, Ralph M. Easley, of the National Civic Federation; Colonel F. L. Robbins, George Haven Putnam, president of American Rights League; Nathan S. Jonas and others.

At the Garden

Sends Wishes for Success of Legion's Mass Meeting To-night in Revealing True American Ideals

Indorsed on All Sides

Greatest Display of U. S. Spirit Since War Expected; Ready for Vast Crowd

President Harding yesterday gave his personal approval to the all-American mass meeting which is to be held Indiges Success of Legion's Mass Meeting Three stands were erected in Madison Square Park last night from which prominent persons will address overflow meetings. The speakers will be william D. Bosler, Dr. Jonas Lippmann, Sidney Forscher, Ruchard Bunzl, Etta Z. Leighton, Kathryn Mathews, Julius Hyman, J. D. Flynn, Arthur T. Harriell, John W. Savane and Julius Goldsmith. Harry D. Jacobs is in charge of all the outdoor meetings. Five hundred patrolmen will be on duty at the Garden a block way in each direction, and no one without a ticket will be permitted to pass the lines. After the Garden is filled even those with tickets will not be permitted to approach the building. They will be directed to the overflow meetings.

can mass meeting which is to be held at Madison Square Garden to-night Mme. Curie Wants to See under the auspices of the American Scenic Beauty of U. S

More than 30,000 tickets to the meeting and to the overflow demonstrations Radium Discoverer Writes of the Pleasure She Expects arranged the meeting as a protest on Forthcoming Visit ngainst the city administration's per-letter from Mme. Marie Curie, scene of the greatest patriotic event since the war.

President Harding was invited to be one of the speakers, with General Pershing. On account of the pressure of official business the President was of official business the President was unable to be in New York, but he sent to Celonel F. W. Galbraith, national commander of the American Legion, yesterday this letter, indicating his warm approval:

"My dear Colonel Galbraith:

"It is a pleasure to comply with your request for a word of greeting to the all-American meeting to be held in Madison Square Garden on the evening of March 18.

"I am not unfamiliar with the purposes of the gathering, and am glad to give them."

"In that the Americans women once more for all their kindness and for their effort to help me. I have this morning sent you a cable message saying that I hope to pass a month in America with my daughters, but that I cannot remain beyond that period.

"If during my stay in America I could see part of your country where the scenery is particularly beautiful it would give me great pleasure and would rest me from my stay in the cities, which is always tiresome. I do not fear the railroad. Returning we would pass through Canada and Niagara.

poses of the gathering, and am glad to give them my cordial indorsement.

"I hope you may have a great outpouring that shall voice the best and helpful to me in my future work, but most determined ideals of American patriotism. Very truly yours,

"WARREN G. HARDING."

The program was completed yesterday. Robert Grier Cooke, chairman of the committee of arrangements, will open the meeting at 8:15 o'clock. He will introduce Henry J. Ryan, national director of the Legion's Americanism committee, as temporary chairman. Colonel Galbraith will be chairman and the first speaker.

Belpful to me in my future work, but I am not in good enough health to be exposed to much fatigue. I can be sure that it will be a memorable trip—thanks to your solicitude."

The visit contemplated will be the first Mme. Curie has ever paid to America.

$20,090 Realized at

Sale of Oriental Rugs

Ksorassan Carpet Sells for $1,025; Private Collectors and Dealers Among Bidders which will be at 6:30 o'clock. Arrangements have been made for holding as fourteen feet, in Kermanshah design many outdoor meetings as the crowds which was sold to Dr. E. Cadgene for unable to get into the Garden seem to $1,025.

The Psi Upsilon Club, in connection with the demonstration, made public a letter it had addressed to Governor Miller. The letter said:

"At an informal meeting of the club the members unanimously protested against the Horrors on the Rhine' meeting held recently in Madison Square Garden. We condemn this meeting as un-American and contrary to the best interests of the United States and our allies. Our entire membership will support any movement you may designate as disapproving of this insidious propaganda."

Among those who have accepted in-

Hall, 123 West Forty-third Street, 11 o'cicock.
ccture by Captain Hugh S. Martin, on "Bolshevism in Russla and Its Menace to the United States," Women's Forum, Hotel Biltmore, 11 o'clock.
ecture by Andre Tridon, on "Dual Personalities: or, the Jekyll and Hyde Case in Actual Life," Rumford Hall, 50 East Forty-first Street, 3:30 o'clock.
ecture by Shaller Mathews, on "Three Lessons of a Century," Academy of Music, Brooklyn, 4 o'clock, onvention of the League for Industrial Rights, Waldorf-Astoria, all day. NIGHT ddress by Chief Magistrate McAdoo Address by Chief Magistrate McAdoo, on "The Magistrate's Court," before the Men's Brotherhood, Fourth Presbyterian Church Noted Forth Men's Brotherhood, Fourth Presbyterian Church Neity-first Sfreet and West End Avenue.

Lecture by Everett Dean Martin, on "Can Another" Cooper Union, 8 o'clock.

Address by Governor Henry J. Ailen of Kansas, on "The Industrial Court," under the auspices of the League for Political Education, Town Hall, 123 West Forty-third Street, 8:30 o'clock.

Lecture by Edward King, on "A Great Little Club," Wadleigh High School, 114th Street and Seventh Avenue, Meeting and entertainment of the Knickser Clvic Club. Hotel Majestic, 8:30 o'clock.

Namee of the-Willard A. Balcom Auxilliarry, American Legion, 2d Field Artillery Armory, 116th Street and Franklin Avenue, 8 o'clock.

Judge Warns Mrs. Reese

Grants Husband's Request To Be Allowed to See Child

Red Husband's Request To Be Allowed to See Child

ce of the Pershing Club, Hotel Mc-

Son-in-Law of S. S. McClure

Cameron Mackenzie, author, pub-isher and formerly vice-president of the S. S. McClure publications, died yesterday on board the steamship Aquitanis, off Cape Race, according to wireless messages received here last night. No details of the circumstances surounding his death were contained in he wireless messages.

Mr. Mackenzie left the United States in 1917 to become a special correspondent for the London Chronicle with the merican army. After the signing of dent for the London Chronicle with the American army. After the signing of the armistice he went to Warsaw, Poland, for the New York Herald and London Poet.

He was the eldest son of Dr. James Cameron Mackenzie, founder of the Lawrenceville, N. J., School and of Tome Institute, at Port Deposit, Md. He was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., September 7, 1882, and was educated at Lawrenceville and at Yale. He came to New York in 1901 and became a reporter on the Evening Sun. In the meanwhile he studied law at New York Law School and later joined the forces of McClure's Magazine, as assistant managing editor and became managing editor and publisher in 1909.

In association with Frederick L. Collins he acquired a controlling interest in that magazine and also the Ladies' World. He was vice-president of the McClure publications until 1915, when he resigned to go abroad as a war correspondent. Among his published works are Mr. and Mrs. Pierce and The Prussian and Other Stories. He was married to Miss Elizabeth McClure, in April, 1907. He was a member of the Aldine, Union League, Players and Sleepy Hollow Country clubs, and made his home at Brookhaven, L. I. A wireless message telling of the death was also received last night by his father, Dr. Mackenzie, who now lives in Monroe, N. Y. The Aquitania is due to arrive in New York late this afternoon or early to-morrow morning, according to information given out at the Cunard Line offices last night.

Dr. Gunsaulus, Famous Heart Disease Takes Author and

Institute of Technology here, died suddenly at his home early to-day, follow-

i, 1856, at Chesterville, Ohio, and attended Wesleyan University at Delatended Wesleyan University at Dela-vare, Ohio. He entered the ministry at Columbus at the age of nineteen and later held pastorates at Baltimore and Chicago. Then followed a series of professorships at Yale, University of Chicago, Ohio Wesleyan and Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. Among his more famous lectures are those on Oliver Cromwell, George Washington and American statesman-ship. His writings included songs, es-says, a life of Gladstone and numerous religious works.

N. J. Towns to Save Daylight Newark Passes Ordinance Like That in New York City

Irrespective of action by the New Jersey Legislature, the Newark city authorities will inaugurate a daylight period parallelling that of New York city. The City Commission of Newark

Grants Husband's Request To Be Allowed to See Child

Alpin, 9 o'clock.
Acture by George M. Sage. on "international Disarmament." 156 Chrystle Street, $130 o'clock.
Resolved, That the proposed Smith-Towner educational bill is for the best interests of education in this country, will be the subject of a debate between the junior debating team of the University of Pennsylvania, affirmative, and the junior debating team of Fordhain University, negative; Fordham University, scalive; Fordham University, s

Cameron Mackenzie for permission to have his daughter

Author, Publisher,
Dies on Aquitania
Son-in-Law of S. S. McClure
Passes Away While Ship
Is Off Cape Race on Way
Here, Says Wireless Report

Visit him.

Justice Morschauser asserted that the father had as much right to the custody of the child as the mother and warned Mrs. Reese that in staying away from her husband she might give him cause to sue for a separation, in which case, if successful, he might obtain sole control of the child.

They still are a married couple, said Justice Morschauser, "and. if she day, March 15, 2010, with the said Justice Morschauser, "and. if she day, March 15, 2010, with the said Justice Morschauser, "and. if she day, March 16, 2010, which case, if successful, he might obtain sole control of the child.

They still are a married couple, said Justice Morschauser, "and. if she day, March 16, 2010, which case, if successful, he might obtain sole control of the child.

They still are a married couple, said Justice Morschauser, "and. if she day, March 16, 2010, which case, if successful, he might obtain sole control of the child.

They still are a married couple, said Justice Morschauser, "and. if she day, March 16, 2010, which case, if successful, he might obtain sole control of the child.

They still are a married couple, said Justice Morschauser, "and. if she day, March 16, 2010, which case, if successful, he might obtain sole control of the child.

They still are a married couple, said Justice Morschauser, "and. if she day, March 16, 2010, which case, if successful, he might obtain sole control of the child.

They still are a married couple, said Justice Morschauser, "and. if she day, March 16, 2010, which case, if successful, he might obtain sole control of the child.

They still are a married couple, said Justice Morschauser, "and. if she day, March 16, 2010, which case, if successful, he might obtain sole control of the child.

They still are a married couple, said Justice Morschauser, "and. if she day, March 16, 2010, which case, if successful, he might obtain sole control of the

Drive for $10,240,000 Irish Relief Fund Opens

Day's Collection in City Estimated at $100,000; Appeals Made to Parade Spectators

Committee for Relief in Ireland began yesterday the task of collecting $2,000,000 as this city's quota in the nation-wide campaign for a fund of $10,240,000. The solicitors were stationed at strategic points throughout the city, and their appeal reached the throng which turned out to view the St. Patrick's Day parade. Martin Conboy, chairman of the committee, expressed confidence last night that the $100,000 quota for the day had been reached. Collections also were taken at the leading hotels and in the theatrical district. A number of meetings and entertainments held last night are expected to increase the total. Hartford County. Connecticut, has contributed $75,000 and Waterbury has contributed $75,000. Among those who have accepted invitations to act as vice-chairmen in the campaign are Haley Fiske, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York; H. L. Davis, Governor of Wisconsin, and E. H. San Souci, Governor of Rhode Island.

Harding Sends Wireless Greeting to Operators

World's Championship Radio Receiving Contest Is Be-gun at Convention

gun at Convention

President Harding sent a wireless message telight by his father, Dr. Mackenzie, the new York later this afternoon or early co-morrow morning, according to information given out at the Cunard line offices last night.

Dr. Gunsaulus, Famous

Preacher, Dies Suddenly

Meart Disease Takes Author and Educator in Chicago at the Age of 65

CHICAGO, March 17.—Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, preacher, educator, writer and, since 1892, president of Armour Institute of Technology here, died suddenly at his home early to-day, following a heart attack.

Dr. Gunsaulus was born on January 1, 1856, at Chesterville, Ohio, and attended Wesleyan University at Dela-

Harding Approves Relief Hopes Fund to Buy South's Rice for Armenians Will Grow

Among his more famous lectures are those on Oliver Cromwell. George washing. His writings included songs, essays, a life of Gladstone and numerous.

Besides being president of Armour Institute he was virtually one of its founders. While pastor of a Chicago church he preached what later became known as the "$2,800,000 sermon," appealing for aid for young boys and life was the "$2,800,000 sermon," appealing for aid for young boys and life was the "$2,800,000 sermon," appealing for aid for young boys and life was the "$2,800,000 sermon," appealing for aid for young boys and life was the "$2,800,000 sermon," appealing for aid for young boys and life was the "$2,800,000 sermon," appealing for aid for young boys and life was the "$2,800,000 sermon," appealing for all for young boys and life was the "$2,800,000 sermon," appealing for aid for young boys and life was the young years and young boys and life was the young years and young years and the was the was the young was the young years and yea church he preached what later became known as the "$2,800,000 sermon," appealing for sid for young boys and girls of the city.

He was the first to advocate establishment of free kindergartens maintained by churches of this city.

For a generation Dr. Gunsaulus had been noted as a leader of civic betterment movements in the Central West and during the war his caustic attacks on un-American persons and institutions brought him considerable notice.

Four daughters and one son and the Princess Alexandra Helene Priscilla libesco, the nine-months-old daughter of Prince and Princess Antine Bibesco of Rumania, arrived here yesterday on he White Star liner Olympic and aused quite a flurry at the pier. Her father, who is Rumanian Minister to the United States, was too busy with official matters at Washington to come to New York, but her mother was at the pier to greet her, The baby, clad cans leaving a French port is no longer SWAN

Death and In Memoriam Notices may be telephoned to The Tribune any time up to midnight for insertion in the next day's paper. Telephone Beekman 3000.

REDMOND-PELLETREAU - Mrs. Elms

MARRIAGES

DEATHS

BLYDENBURGH—Amelia, daughter of the late Benjamin B. Blydenburgh, on Tuesday, March 15, in the seventy-fourth year of her age Funeral from her late residence at Smithtown Branch, L. L., on Friday, March 18, at 2:50 D. m.

CHRISTY—Suddenly, on Wednesday, March 16, 1921, Dorothy Mac Christy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton A. Christy. Funeral services will be held at her late residence, 708 Union st. on year. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend unreal service this late residence, 14. St. John place. Brooklyn, on Friday, March 1 at 8 p. m. Interment private Saturda

On Visits of Allied Tourists

PARIS, March 17.—Fresh regulations facilitate visits of foreigners to facilitate visits of foreigners to European facilitate visits of foreigners facilitate visits of fac

IN MEMORIAM

Smith, who died March 18, 1914. Any Hour, Day or Ni